

Why you should hire the Blue Sage Trio!

Blue Sage is a unique acoustic folk trio who's songs reflect the culture and history of the west.

The members of Blue Sage are:

Mike Iverson - banjo, guitar, lead vocals.

Shauna Iverson - double bass, vocals.

Heather Iverson - fiddle, vocals.

*Our instrumentation is based on folk and bluegrass stylings but our songs are definitely rooted in the western tradition.

*Every Blue Sage performance features a wide variety of styles; folk, western swing, bluegrass, old time fiddle/banjo tunes, cowboy ballads....

*We pride ourselves in being personable and adaptable; we always try to accommodate the wishes of those who have hired us.

*We always dress appropriately. Our costuming is usually "nice western" but changes if the presenter wants another theme (old time cowboy, pioneer, nice casual, ect.).

*The music of Blue Sage appeals to all age groups.

*We can provide our own professional quality sound reinforcement.
